

I Don't Need Anything But You

(©2010, written by Melody Mertz – recorded on “Blessed!” publishing administration: Jim M. Music, SESAC)

(verse 1)

I know Your Name
And I've sat in the presence of You
And I've heard Your voice
And I know You've got work for me to do
But still I would turn away – I would do it my way
I would fight until my hands were black and blue
Then I would hear Your name – plead for Your loving grace
Then You'd pick me up and make me new

(chorus)

All these stepping stones they lead me to You
And all this mountain climbing strengthened me – You're my water – You're my food
And though I stumble now and often – Your Love has proved
I don't need anything – anything but You

(verse 2)

I came so close to self-destruction and despair
And I'd hide my eyes – to hide the pain that lived in there
And still I would turn away – I would do it my way
I would fight until these hands were black and blue
Then I would cry Your name – and plead for Your loving grace
Then You'd scoop me up and make me new

(chorus)

(bridge)

You are my Rock, You are my Love
You're my strength from up above – You're everything

(chorus)

I don't need anything – no, no anything but You